CAMP FACULTY

Alexander Grambow, Sacramento Children's Chorus' Artistic Director and conductor, believes that music provides children with a unique way to learn about the world and a safe and nurturing opportunity for self-expression. He directs SCC's Crescendo, the advanced touring choir and Dolce, the high school choir. Before joining SCC, Mr. Grambow taught in Twin Rivers Unified School District where he oversaw successful music programs at Foothill High School and at Foothill Ranch Middle School. Between the two schools, he taught 5th through the 12th grades and directed four choirs and two bands. Previously, Mr. Grambow taught in Stockton Unified School District at Harmony Stockton, an El Sistema inspired program, which is a globally recognized music program known for its musical and social benefits. Mr. Grambow graduated from the University of the Pacific with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education with an emphasis in voice. While attending UOP, Mr. Grambow was the recipient of the Presser Scholarship. Mr. Grambow trained with Lynelle Wiens at UOP and currently studies voice with Robin Fisher. Mr. Grambow's performing experience includes Music Circus, Woodland Opera House Theatre Company, Sacramento Choral Society and Orchestra and Westminster Church Choir. Mr. Grambow is also Music Director at Northminster Presbyterian Church

Jessica Suderman, director of Sacramento Children's Chorus' Allegro and Brio, is a lifelong musician and passionate educator with a love of the performing arts that began when she was just 3 years old. She holds a bachelor's degree in music education and a single subject teaching credential in music from Azusa Pacific University. While living in Southern California, she worked with the Los Angeles Little Angels Children's Chorale and student taught in the choral and instrumental programs at Pasadena High School. She moved to Sacramento in 2013 after completing her studies. Jessica also teaches in the Twin Rivers Unified School District Visual and Performing Arts Department, where she has found tremendous joy in teaching elementary classroom music and an after-school choir for the last three years. When she is not teaching or practicing, Jessica can be found in ballet class, in the kitchen with her husband, Stephen, or spending time with their black lab, Theo. She is honored and excited to join the SCC community and looks forward to bringing out the best in herself and her students.

About Sacramento Children's Chorus

The internationally acclaimed Sacramento Children's Chorus (SCC), a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, provides excellence in choral music education and performance opportunities to talented children in the greater Sacramento community. Singers participate in a progressive program that consists of five levels accommodating the various ages (7-19) and performance abilities. Singers are admitted by competitive audition. Membership is drawn from Sacramento, Placer, Yolo and El Dorado counties where singers attend a variety of public and private elementary, middle and high schools. The SCC maintains a program that provides each singer the opportunity to progress and develop at an individual pace. As student's abilities increase, their opportunities for performance expand.
